

2011 Girl Scout Programs

Learn how three generations of the Gordon family served Savannah and our country and shaped the life of Juliette Gordon Low.

Girl Scout Militia—Old Fort Jackson

Experience the life of a Civil War soldier as you learn how the war impacted Juliette's life in Savannah.

$9.50 per person (includes a one-of-a-kind activities patch)
One-hour program

Grandfather Gordon's Railroad—Roundhouse Railroad Museum

Juliette Gordon Low's grandfather, William Washington Gordon I, was instrumental in the development of the Central of Georgia Railroad. Experience the growth and impact of the railroad on Savannah and the nation.

$9.50 per person (includes a one-of-a-kind activities patch)

Juliette's Family Tree -Savannah History Museum, Battlefield Park and the Roundhouse Railroad Museum

Be introduced to three generations of the Gordon family and learn how each served Savannah and influenced Juliette's life.

$17.00 per person (includes a one-of-a-kind activities patch)
Two-hour program

More Great Options for Your Troop :

...add a hot breakfast for $9.50 per person

...add a boxed lunch for $9.50 per person

...add dinner for $14.50 per person

*Pricing includes GA sales tax and is valid through August 2011. All prices are subject to change.
Train rides subject to availability.*

Lisa Porter
(Girl Scout Militia)

912.232.3945

oldfortjackson@chsgeorgia.org

For more information,
please contact :

Kelli Roberson

(all other programs)

912.651.6823

roundhouse@chsgeorgia.org