Our Sites

We invite you and your scout group to visit our sites and participate in Coastal Heritage Society’s exciting field trip programs! We operate five unique museums and historic sites in Savannah, GA: Savannah History Museum & Battlefield Memorial Park, Georgia State Railroad Museum, Savannah Children’s Museum, Old Fort Jackson and Pin Point Heritage Museum.

Savannah History Museum is housed in the former Central of Georgia Railway passenger shed, a National Historic Landmark built in the 1860s and 1870s. Coastal Heritage Society took over operation of Savannah History Museum in 1990. The museum is home to more than 10,000 artifacts-- the largest collection of artifacts in the entire coastal community. Battlefield Memorial Park, adjacent to the History Museum, commemorates the site where 800 soldiers were either killed or wounded on October 9th, 1779 in one of the deadliest battles of the American Revolution. More than 8,000 troops, from what are now eight modern countries, clashed for control of the city of Savannah. The combined French and American force failed to extract it from British control.

Georgia State Railroad Museum is the site of the former Central of Georgia Railroad Savannah Repair Shops, and a vibrant part of Savannah’s industrial heritage. Construction began on the site in 1851 and the majority of buildings were completed by 1855. The Civil War brought damage and destruction to the Central of Georgia Railroad, but soon after the war the Central was back in full operation. It was reorganized in 1895 and renamed Central of Georgia Railway. The Central used this site until 1963.

Savannah Children’s Museum Savannah Children’s Museum is a one-acre, two-level outdoor educational space featuring over a dozen interactive exhibits and activities designed to offer an open exploration experience and to expand the imaginations of children ages 18 months to 8 years. The museum was unveiled as an adaptive reuse project in 2012 in the historic Central of Georgia Railway Carpentry Shop.

Old Fort Jackson, named after Revolutionary War hero James Jackson, was built to defend the port of Savannah from attack via the river. In 1777 & 1778, there was an earthen artillery battery located on the site. During the administration of President Thomas Jefferson, the United States began building a series of coastal fortifications, including Fort Jackson, to provide for the defense of major rivers and harbors along the east coast.

Pin Point Heritage Museum is located just off the Diamond Causeway in the recently restored A.S. Varn & Son Oyster and Crab Factory on the Moon River. The Museum shares the story of the Pin Point Community founded in 1890 by freed slaves, many from Ossabaw Island. Pin Point Heritage Museum, with its more than 3,000 square feet of exhibition space, artifacts and interactive displays, helps to tell the story of the history, traditions, language, spiritual life, and culture of the community.

All of our programs are based on the Georgia Standards of Excellence and are age- and grade-specific. Each offers an engaging, interactive and fun educational experience for visitors of all ages. If you have any special needs, please speak with one of us. With sufficient notice, we can tailor our programs to meet the needs of your group. We hope to see you soon!

Georgia State Railroad Museum is located at the former Central of Georgia Railway Savannah Repair Shops and is a vibrant part of Savannah’s industrial heritage. Construction began on the site in 1851 and the shops soon flourished as engines and rolling stock were built and repaired there. The Civil War brought damage and destruction to the railroad, but by 1895, the renamed Central of Georgia Railway was reorganized and fully operational. The Central used this site until 1963. Coastal Heritage Society offers two special Boy Scout Programs at Georgia State Railroad Museum.

Georgia State Railroad Museum Boy Scout Program

During this one-hour program, scouts will learn about the important contributions of railroads to the development of Georgia and the United States. Scouts will explore the former railroad facility that now houses our museum and see firsthand equipment, locomotives, and railcars, which will help them understand how steam power and industrialization changed American life. The museum’s historic buildings, making up the largest, most complete pre-Civil War railroad complex in the United States, will help scouts to conceptualize the many moving parts of a railroad, from planning, construction, and daily operation to expansion, innovation, and even advertising.

Price per person including accompanying adults: $9.00 plus tax
Group Minimum: 25
Length of Program: 1 hr.

Railroading Merit Badge

This three-hour-program expands upon our 1-hour Boy Scout Program to focus on subject matter outlined in official requirements for the Railroading Merit Badge. Scouts that register for this program will receive a Railroading Merit Badge Workbook to be used to complete all their requirements. During this expansive program, scouts will have a chance to learn about railroad communications and railroad safety, and will enjoy an extended site tour, learning about different types of railroad revenue and railcars. Scouts participating in this program will also explore more modern railroad history and equipment, learning about the formation of Amtrak and the current state of rail travel and freight traffic in the United States. Scouts will be encouraged to take notes in their workbooks and ask questions for the duration of the program.

Girl Scout Programs

Girl Scout Militia Program

During this hour-long program, Girl Scouts may join as new recruits in the American Civil War, learning how skills included in their Handbook in 1912 were once used at Old Fort Jackson to protect the citizens of Savannah—including the founder of the Girl Scouts, Juliette Gordon Low and her family—during wartime! Girl Scouts will first earn their "signing bonus", a replica of Confederate States of America paper money, as they begin to learn about Juliette and her family as well as about the daily lives of soldiers during the Civil War. During the program, scouts can also be issued quinine, trained to send messages with Signal Corps flags and by telegraph, and taught how to load and fire a cannon! Our Girl Scout Militia program concludes with a cannon firing demonstration conducted by Fort staff.

Price per person including accompanying adults: $11.00 plus tax (includes a one-of-a-kind activities patch)

Group Minimum: 10
Length of Program: 1 hr.
Let us introduce you to three generations of the Gordon Family – Ambrose Gordon, William Washington Gordon I, and William Washington Gordon II. Learn how each served Savannah, served the country, and influenced Juliette’s life. This two-hour, multi-site program begins in Savannah History Museum where scouts will visit the Women of Merit Exhibit on the life of Juliette Low, proceed to Battlefield Memorial Park, and conclude with a tour of Georgia State Railroad Museum. The program finishes with a ride on an open air passenger car pulled by a steam or diesel locomotive (subject to availability).
